Campaign for a "Nasha Mukt Bharat" (Drug-Free India): April 22, 2024

NSS at Government Degree College Nagrota recently organized a compelling poster competition as part of its ongoing campaign for a "Nasha Mukt Bharat" (Drug-Free India). The competition, held on April 22, 2024 saw enthusiastic participation from students across various disciplines.

Under the guidance of the esteemed Principal, Prof. Anjali Mahajan, the competition aimed to harness the creative talents of the youth to raise awareness about the detrimental effects of drug abuse. Participants were tasked with designing posters that conveyed powerful messages against substance misuse, targeting both the youth and the broader community.

The event not only provided a platform for students to showcase their artistic skills but also served as an effective medium to educate and engage the audience on the critical issue of drug addiction.

Following the poster competition, an awareness rally was organized in the bustling Nagrota market. Led by the NSS unit, students marched through the streets, chanting slogans and distributing informational pamphlets to spread awareness about the harmful consequences of drug abuse.

The organizing committee, led by Prof. Dinesh Singh Chib as NSS PO, along with the invaluable contributions of Dr. Avtar Singh, Dr. Radha Rani, and Prof. Jaspal Singh, meticulously coordinated every aspect of both the competition and the rally, ensuring their seamless execution and impactful outcomes.

These initiatives exemplify the NSS unit's commitment to promoting social awareness and fostering positive change within the community. Through collaborative efforts and innovative initiatives like these, we endeavor to build a healthier and drug-free society for generations to come.
